Elba Planning & Zoning Board denies request

The Elba Planning and Zoning Board held a public hearing Thursday morning, March 14, regarding a request to consider rezoning 0 Hickman Avenue from R-2 to B-2 in order to allow placement of a billboard on that site. A meeting of the board was held immediately after the public hearing.

The property in question sits between Ellenburg Street and Taylor Avenue on Hickman Avenue. The application for the zoning change was made by William Earl Durden with Durden Outdoor for Donnie Qualls.

Upon entering the official board meeting, the board recommended to not allow the requested rezoning of the property.

2024 MISS ZION CHAPEL WINNERS CROWNED...Altrusa International of Jack, Alabama hosted the 2024 Miss Zion Chapel Pageants last Saturday, March 16, at Zion Chapel School. Queens were crowned in six categories. The 2024 Miss Zion Chapel Queens are (from left): Petite Miss Zion Chapel Isabella LeAnn Boutwell, Teen Miss Zion Chapel Emma-Kate Jordan, Miss Zion Chapel Kerrigan Keith Powell, Little Miss Zion Chapel Everleigh Claire Sasser, Junior Miss Zion Chapel Paisley Katherine Jordan, and Future Little Miss Zion Chapel Addilyn Kate Baldwin.

VEHICLE OVERTURNS...Just after 4 p.m. Friday, March 15, emergency responders were dispatched to a motor vehicle accident on U.S. Highway 84 in Elba near the Davis Street intersection. Upon arrival on scene, responders found a Ford Explorer SUV had overturned in the median of the roadway. Reportedly, there were nine occupants in the vehicle at the time of the accident, including the driver. At least one person was ejected from inside the vehicle as it overturned, and that occupant was taken to an area hospital for treatment of injuries although reports indicated the injuries did not appear life threatening. Others from the vehicle also were transported for medical observation. The area was experiencing heavy rainfall at the time of the accident, which could have been a contributing factor.

Arnold, Poole named Bryant-Jordan scholarship program nominees this year for Elba High School

The Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Program, now in its 37th year, recently announced school nominees who were selected for this year's scholarship distribution.

A total of 102 high school senior student-athletes,

52 in the Bryant-Jordan Scholar-Athlete Program and 52 in the Bryant-Jordan Student Achievement Program, advanced from area nominations. All will be recognized at the 37th annual Bryant-Jordan Awards Banquet set for

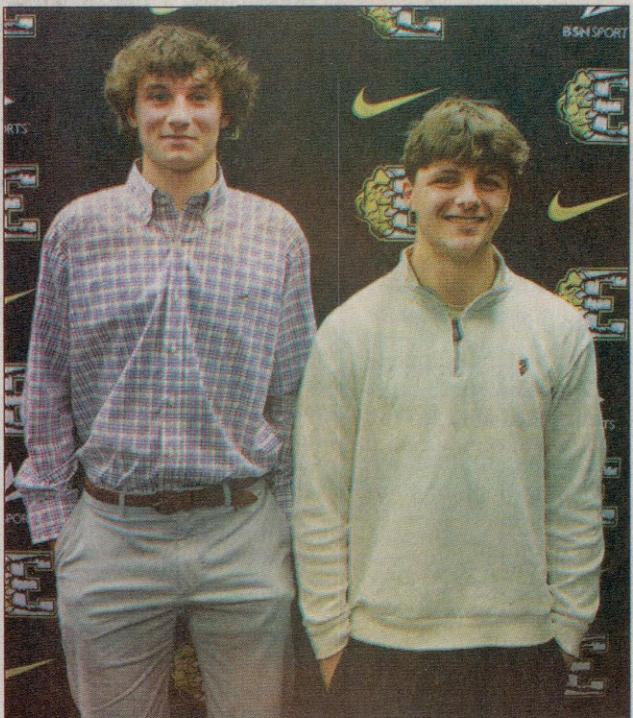

Monday night, April 15, at the Birmingham-Sheraton Hotel.

This year's local nominees from Elba High School (Class 1A) were seniors Colin Arnold and Keaton Poole. Arnold was named Elba's Bryant-Jordan Student Achievement nominee while Poole was named Elba's Bryant-Jordan Scholar-Athlete nominee.

To be eligible for these awards, students had to play a varsity sport while keeping a good academic GPA and take part in additional extracurricular activities. Also, the students had to be recommended by a teacher for the award.

Each high school in the AHSAA may nominate one senior student-athlete in each of the two categories. All students nominated become eligible for the college and community college awards.

"We are extremely proud of both Colin and Keaton," said Elba City Schools superintendent Chris Moseley. "Both these young men are well-round students and are very dedicated to their studies. They make our school proud."

SEAGD gives back to local schools

The Southeast Alabama Gas District (SEAGD) recently announced its 2024 Give Back to Schools contribution of $133,000 to 20 public school systems in Alabama.

The Elba City Schools and Coffee County Schools systems each received funds through this program in 2024. Elba City Councilman and Southeast Alabama Gas board member Gappa Wise worked with leadership in both school systems to determine how funds would be used in 2024.

The Elba City School System plans to use funds from their 2024 Give Back to Schools allocation to enhance technology in its schools and provide supplies needed for the softball and baseball fields. The Coffee County School System plans to use this year's funds to enhance community service efforts by the New Brockton Middle School's Beta Club as students from that organization plan to participate in the National Beta Club Convention this summer.

"We received $1,787 and both Gappa Wise and Mitch Thorn are really good at working with the schools on how the money is spent," said Elba City Schools Superintendent Chris Moseley. "We typically use this money for small technology needs such as additional chords, bulbs, etc. However, with the new technology boards we have recently purchased we will look at some other areas this money can best be used for Elba City Schools."

To date, local public schools have received more than $1.8 million through the Give Back to Schools initiative. The more natural gas a school system uses, the more dollars that system receives.

This program was established by Southeast Gas and its Board of Directors in 2010 and provides dollars to public schools based solely on their natural gas usage for the previous year.

determine the best way for funds to be allocated.

The Give Back to Schools initiative is just one way Southeast Gas is committed to building stronger communities. Southeast Gas President and CEO Greg Henderson said the company's commitment to serve reaches well beyond these contributions, though.

"Giving back to our local public schools is one way Southeast Gas serves students and educators in our communities. These financial contributions are just one way we're investing in our communities through local schools," he said. "Our support of local schools isn't just about financial support, though. We also provide in-kind contributions throughout the year to schools across our service area and provide scholarships to high school seniors who are making a difference."

The Southeast Gas Community Service Scholarship is a competitive scholarship program for high school seniors attending public schools currently served by Southeast Gas. These scholarships are $1,500, and multiple scholarships are awarded each year. Last year 25 students received scholarships through this program. Recipients of this year's scholarships will be announced in April.

School systems impacted by the Southeast Gas Give Back to Schools initiative are: Andalusia City Schools, Butler County Schools, Coffee County Schools, Covington County Schools, Crenshaw County Schools, Dale County Schools, Daleville City Schools, Dothan City Schools, Elba City Schools, Enterprise City Schools, Eufaula City Schools, Henry County Schools, Houston County Schools, Lowndes County Schools, Opp City Schools, Ozark City Schools, Pike County Schools, Pike Road Schools, Russell County Schools and Troy City Schools.

In addition to the direct financial support Southeast Gas provides to these schools, Southeast Gas employees volunteer dozens of hours each year to improve many of the campuses through construction assistance, landscaping, painting, gas appliance maintenance, light carpentry, tutoring, mentoring and many other activities.

Southeast Gas provides natural gas service to 36 communities throughout Southeast Alabama, and is owned by 14 cities - Abbeville, Andalusia, Brundidge, Dothan, Elba, Enterprise, Eufaula, Fort Deposit, Greenville, Headland, Luverne, Opp, Ozark and Troy.

Taxpayers warned to protect themselves from money mule scheme

During the annual, multiweek Money Mule initiative, which takes place in March, the IRS Criminal Investigation Atlanta Field Office is bringing attention to a crime many people may not be aware they are committing.

Criminal enterprises rely on networks of people to move illicit funds between bank accounts, currencies and blockchains to evade law enforcement. The money mule networks recruit participants through a variety of means, including social media, employment and dating websites, email spam, classified ads, and dark web forums.

“In many cases, the people used to move the funds are unaware they are committing a crime,” said Acting Special Agent In Charge, Demetrius Hardeman, IRS:CI Atlanta Field Office. “It is important that individuals protect themselves from being tricked into committing crimes by knowing the signs of a money mule scheme.”

CLASSMATES GATHER FOR LUNCH IN ELBA...They say lifelong friendships can be formed while in school, and this group of men from the Elba High School Class of 1967 are proof of that! The classmates have made it a tradition to try and get-together once every quarter for fellowship and lunch. They gather at Annie’s Comfort Kitchen in Elba and were spotted there last Wednesday, March 13, enjoying good food and even better stories. Those present for the gathering were (around the table from left to right): Al English, Larry Sanders, Hayward Boutwell, Randle Hodge, Kenneth Barlow, Ronnie Nicholson, Kenneth Farris, Roy Farris, Tony Fuller, and John Lawless. The group encourages members of other Elba High School classes to take time to get together regularly to catch up with one another.

Signs that a person is being solicited for a money mule scheme include:

Receiving an unsolicited email or social media message that promises easy money for little to no effort.

A prospective or current employer asks you to open a bank account to receive and transfer money on their behalf.

As an employee, you are asked to receive funds in your bank account and then transfer those funds via wire transfer, a money services business, or the U.S. Postal Service.

Your online companion asks you to receive money and then forward those funds to an individual you don’t know.

Criminals engaging in a money mule scheme may strike up an online relationship and then ask their romantic partner to transfer funds on their behalf using money services businesses, wire transfers or the U.S.

Postal Service. At times, the mule may be told to keep a portion of the funds for themselves, making them a recipient of illicit money.

If you or someone you know believes they are part of a money mule network, immediately stop all communication with suspected criminals. Do not transfer money or any other items of value. Maintain receipts, contact information and relevant communication like emails, chats, and text messages.

Notify your local CI field office and report suspicious activity to www.ic3.gov. Contact information the IRS:CI Atlanta Field Office at atlantafieldoffice@ci.irs.gov. The field office covers the states of Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, and Mississippi.

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression Cuzin Lou Lou added to Sister's eye-rolling moments last Sunday with her outfit for church!

Since it was St. Patrick's Day on Sunday, Lou Lou decided to dress in green for the day. She wore green pants with a shirt of a different shade of green. This was all highlighted by the bright green St. Patrick's Day themed top hat Lou Lou found in her closet!

When Lou Lou emerged from her bedroom Sunday morning, all Sister could do was shake her head! Of course, Papa did not help her feelings any as he wore a pair of his new suspenders with his pants and dress shirt – then Lou Lou pulled out one of his bow ties adorned in green for him to wear too!

While Sister was not a fan of the wardrobe choices made by Lou Lou and Sister for St. Patrick's Day, they each reported getting lots of compliments from their fellow church members!

Lou Lou had so much fun with her “dress for the occasion” day that she came home Sunday afternoon, and immediately began searching for an eye-catching Easter outfit, and it was a successful search – she will be decked out Easter morning with a festive dress, hat, and shoes that match her dress!!

Lou Lou is very excited to share her fun Easter attire with everyone...She just hopes Sister will still attend church with her that morning despite Lou Lou's fashion choices!

As the two discussed the St. Patrick's Day attire and the pending Easter attire choices Lou Lou decided on this year, Sister couldn't help but ask Lou Lou “why” she chose to dress in such a way.

For Lou Lou, the answer was simple.

“First...it's fun,” she answered. “But, mostly because it brings smiles and even laughter to others.”

Sure, the laughter might be at Lou Lou, but as far as Lou Lou is concerned, if she can help to bring a smile or even laughter to others, then it is a worthwhile cause. Truth is...too often we get so caught up in life that we forget to enjoy ourselves. Lou Lou doesn't want to ever forget to enjoy life, and she is willing to dress crazy, if that is what it takes, to help others not forget either.

So...while Sister may not always agree with Lou Lou or Papa's fashion decisions, she has to admit that Lou Lou might be right when it comes to being open to a more lighthearted outlook on life in general!

If nothing else, Lou Lou's Easter outfit will have Sister shaking her head, and any chance Lou Lou gets to aggravate Sister is well worth the cost of admission and/or clothing!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

ALEA kicks off ‘Think Smart Before You Start’ spring safety campaign

The Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA) is kicking off its fourth annual ‘Think Smart Before You Start’ spring safety campaign as students of all ages and their families prepare for end-of-the-school-year festivities such as spring break, prom and the upcoming graduation season. Ideally, parents should also set aside time with their teens to ensure safety is always part of their plans whatever the event or function.

Amidst the excitement and changing of the seasons, ALEA reminds everyone to prioritize safety and be mindful of inexperienced drivers, as well as novice boaters when enjoying the water. It is during this time of year that ALEA’s Driver License Division often sees an increase in the issuance of driver licenses. Many of which will be issued to teens who may have substantial travel plans for spring break or end-of-the-year trips.

ALEA Secretary Hal Taylor said, “As law enforcement, we have a responsibility to ensure our roadways and communities are safe. This is especially true during the spring season when many teens are obtaining their license and embarking on their first significant journey behind the wheel. We recognize the importance of instilling responsible driving behaviors from the start and encourage parents to join us in reinforcing safety by having serious discussions with their children, as well as any young or inexperienced drivers they mentor.”

ALEA’s Department of Public Safety’s (DPS) Director, Colonel Jonathan Archer agreed and said, “Unfortunately, I have observed first-hand the devastating consequences of inexperienced drivers who lack the overall knowledge, skills and ability to safely operate a vehicle. We continue to see lives lost as a result of driving behaviors that are developed early on through poor choices. Whether it involved speeding, failure to wear seat belts, distracted or driving impaired, these crashes ended with the same result and loved ones whose lives were changed forever.”

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

My name is Rita Chlebek. I am contacting you regarding my parents who are residents of Elba.

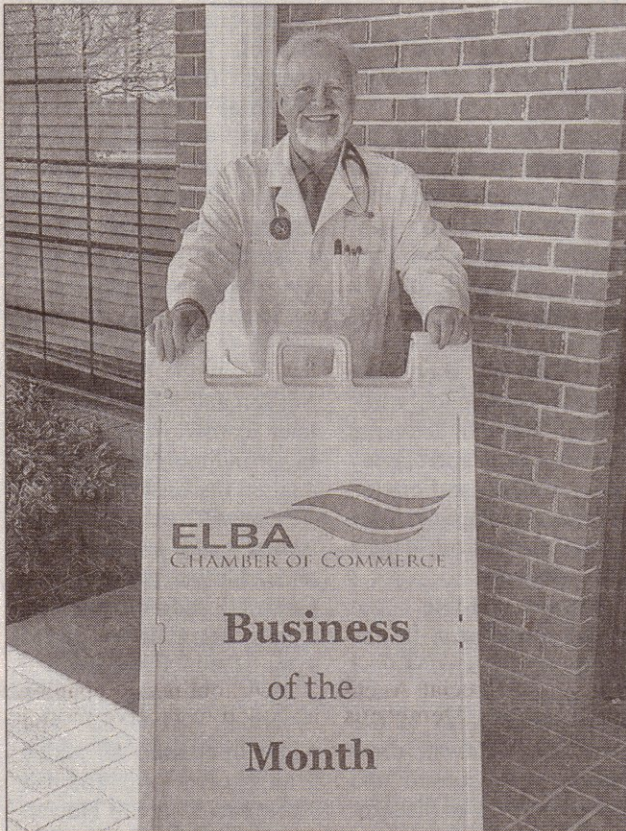

My parents recently moved to Elba from Illinois. They had hoped to retire and live out their days in what my mom described as beautiful countryside surrounded by nature. My parents have raved about the kindness of the new people they have met. Unfortunately, shortly after moving there my mother fell ill and has been diagnosed with cancer. She has been in a serious fight for her life.

My reason for contacting you is during this challenging time my parents’ hauler trailer has been stolen out of their yard. Their home is in Elba off of Hwy. 87 near Grace Holiness Church. It was stolen on 3-11-24. It is a large white enclosed trailer, and I assume would kind of look out of place if it showed up somewhere new.

The trailer contained a lot of their personal belongings...nothing of real value just lots of sentimental pictures - things grandkids made my mom, clothes, etc. I was hoping that somehow you could help get the word out, so that people would be on the lookout. This has my mom in tears, and I would love to give her back some of her keepsakes.

Anyone with any information is asked to call the Coffee County Sheriff’s Office or email me at rchlebekmedinfo@hotmail.com

Thank you, Rita Chlebek

Supporting Grieving Parents of Special Needs Children

As funeral directors we have walked countless families through the painful goodbyes that come with loss. Yet, when supporting parents who’ve lost a child with special needs...the grief, while universal, manifests differently, requiring a tailored approach.

Parents of special needs children develop a profound bond, becoming advocates, caregivers, and companions on a unique journey. The loss of this child severs not just a familial tie, but also a future filled with hopes and dreams that may have diverged from societal norms.

Here’s what makes this grief distinct:

- Complex Emotions: Guilt for outliving their child, or for past frustrations with their child’s challenges, can intertwine with the raw pain of loss.
- Loss of Routine: Special needs children often bring a specific structure to the household. Their absence creates a profound disruption, adding another layer of stress to the grieving process.
- Social Isolation: Friends and family may not understand the complexities of the bond, leading to feelings of isolation.

Coping Mechanisms for Grieving Parents - There’s no one-size-fits-all approach to grief, but here are some ways to navigate this difficult path:

- Acknowledge the Uniqueness: Recognize that your grief is different and valid. Don’t compare it to the experiences of others.
- Allow Yourself to Feel: Bottling up emotions hinders healing. Cry, scream, or express yourself however feels right.
- Seek Professional Help: Grief counselors experienced in special needs loss can offer invaluable support and guidance.
- Connect with Others: Support groups specifically for parents who’ve lost special needs children offer a safe space to share experiences and find understanding.
- Maintain Routines: While change is inevitable, some normalcy in daily life can provide a sense of grounding.
- Honor Your Child’s Memory: Create a memory box, plant a tree, or volunteer at a cause your child cared about.

As you navigate this difficult journey, remember, you are not alone. Lean on your support system – friends, family, therapists, and support groups. There is no right or wrong way to grieve, and healing takes time.

Here at our funeral home, we understand the specific needs of families grieving special needs children. We’re here for you, every step of the way. In the face of such immense loss, finding solace may seem impossible. But with time, support, and self-compassion, you can learn to carry the memory of your precious child while forging a new path forward.

Spring break is just around the corner and it will be interesting to see just how much fun our youngest grandson Cannon has trying to walk in the sand and playing in the gulf water. He will let you know in a hurry when he isn't happy, but the guess here is that any screams heard will be from excitement as he experiences a new form of enjoyment.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Lady Tigers finally got to play softball last week after having countless games called off due to the success of the basketball team, various school events and rainy weather, and the Lady Tigers enjoyed their return to the field as they posted a pair of area wins. Junior pitcher Ayrika Caldwell was in mid-season form as she pitched 10 innings and allowed only one hit and struck out 25 batters, while eighth-grader Mary Brooklyn O'Neal swung a big bat as she banged out five hits, scored four runs and knocked in two runs. Everyone in the line-up got in on the fun at the plate as the Lady Tigers scored 23 runs in the two wins, and while the fast start was good to see, there is a lot of softball left on the schedule and the team will have to improve each and every day to continue its success.

 The Elba Tigers dropped their first area series of the season to Florala, but did show signs of improvement from game one to game two, and I still believe the team will make some noise in the area race before the season begins to wind down. The Tigers were handcuffed at the plate in the opening loss, but hit the ball well in game two and if not for a couple of costly errors may have pulled off an upset. Don't let their record fool ya, the Elba Tigers are close to being a very good team and can win on any given day, no matter the competition.

 It was a busy week on the baseball and softball fields for area teams and with spring break coming up there is no doubt the players will get a little rest before they return to the fields and get ready for the homestretch. On the baseball field, the Kinston Bulldogs won an area series over Pleasant Home and all of the sudden looks like a playoff contender, while New Brockton knocked off defending 2A state champ Arifton to pump life into the already solid program, Zion Chapel continued to play well and proved once again it knows how to win, and Brantley made it look easy in a couple of area wins and is without a doubt the team to beat in its area. Over on the softball field, Kinston made it loud and clear that the Lady Bulldogs are back and ready to make a run at yet another area crown by winning a tournament in Ozark, while Zion Chapel suffered a rare loss at a tournament in Geneva and will certainly use the loss as fuel for future outings, Brantley lost twice at a tournament in Geneva, but is still a 1A contender with a young team that is growing up fast, and New Brockton appears to be getting better almost every game and will should be ready to make some noise. As you can tell by the 'highlights' page, the sports scene in the area is among the best and busiest in the state, and we still have plenty of time to go out and enjoy supporting the players.

 In closing... The Alabama High School Athletic Association released its 'winter sports' alignments last week and it looks like the Elba Tigers will have some new rivals on the schedule next season as they were moved into the area with Brantley, defending state champ Georgiana, Red Level and McKenzie. The addition of Emmanuel Christian to the 1A ranks led to the change, but it is a little puzzling why Pleasant Home moved into the area with the new private school from Dothan, along with Kinston and Florala, when it is more geographically aligned with the area the Tigers were sent to. Zion Chapel will be a 2A contender, again, and next season will be in the area with Goshen, Luverne and Pike Lib, while New Brockton will make the move to 4A and will match up with Bullock County, Opp, Pike County and Straughn. That is a couple of long rides for the Gamecocks!

Lady Tigers grab two area wins

Elba 10 Houston County 0

The Elba Lady Tigers opened their season last week with a solid 10-0 area win over the Houston County Lady Lions, in Elba.

Elba jumped on top 1-0 in the top of the first inning when Destinee Tidwell singled and later scored on a wild pitch, then added eight runs in the second to increase its lead to 9-0.

Leadoff singles by Mary O'Neal and Ayrika Caldwell sparked the eight-run outburst, while four straight rbi singles by Haley Tucker, Kalleigh Russell, Destinee Tidwell, Danielle Tidwell helped up the lead to 5-0, and two-run singles by Anna Caldwell and O'Neal capped off the big inning as the Lady Tigers took command early.

Elba wasted a double by Danielle Tidwell in the fourth, but ended the game due to the 10-run rule in the fifth on a leadoff single by Mary O'Neal and a triple off the fence by Ayrika Caldwell.

Mary O'Neal had 3 hits and scored 2 runs to lead the Lady Tigers at the plate, while Destinee Tidwell added 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi; Danielle Tidwell added 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; Ayrika Caldwell added 2 hits, 1 rbi and scored 1 run; and, Kalleigh Russell, Haley Tucker and Ana Caldwell all added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi.

Ayrika Caldwell pitched a five-inning one-hitter with 13 strikeouts.

Elba 13 Pleasant Home 3

The Elba Lady Tigers capped off the first week of their often-delayed softball season with a solid 13-3 area road win over Pleasant Home.

Elba failed to get on the scoreboard in the opening inning, but exploded for five runs in the top of the second to grab a 5-0 lead. Ayrika Caldwell had a 2-run single to spark the early uprising and courtesy runner Taylor Day later scored on a wild pitch, while Kalleigh Russell delivered a key rbi single and Hayley Tucker walked and circled the bases on Pleasant Home miscues as the Lady Tigers took command.

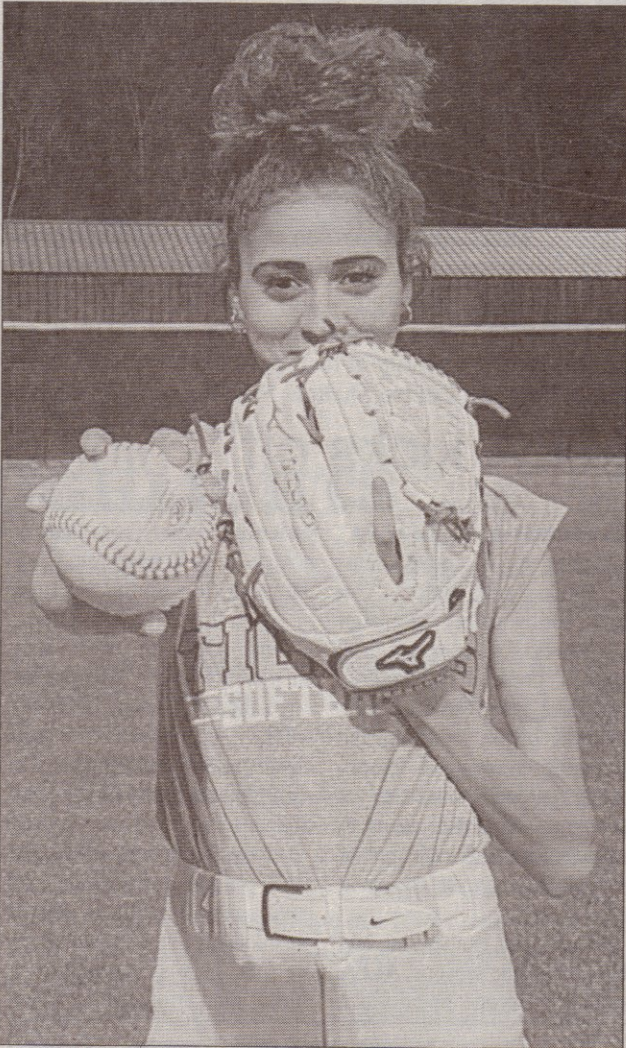

Pleasant Home got on the scoreboard in the bottom of the second, but Elba answered right back and upped its lead to 6-1 when Ana Caldwell drew a walk, stole second and raced home on a Pleasant Home error.

Danielle Tidwell singled and later scored on a fielder's choice in the fourth as the Lady Tigers lead went to 7-2, and Elba erupted for six runs in the fifth to blow the game open and grab a 13-2 advantage. A two-out walk to Kalleigh Russell ignited the fifth inning fireworks, while Destinee and Danielle Tidwell were both hit by pitches to load the bases. Ana Caldwell came through with a triple off the centerfield fence to clear the bases and scored on an rbi single by Mary O'Neal, while O'Neal scored on an rbi single by Alayvia Stinson and Jaden Caldwell later scored to complete the big fifth inning and seal the deal on the road win.

Mary O'Neal had 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi to lead Elba, while Ayrika Caldwell added 2 hits and 2 rbi's, Ana Caldwell added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 3 rbi's; Destinee Tidwell, Alayvia Stinson and Kalleigh Russell all added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; and, Danielle Tidwell added 1 hit and scored 2 runs.

Ayrika Caldwell pitched a five-inning no-hitter with 12 strikeouts, but did allowed two earned runs on five walks.

Elba Lady Tiger Ayrika Caldwell pitched two complete games last week and recorded 25 strikeouts in 10 innings inside the circle as the Lady Tigers opened the season with two wins.

Elba Tigers swept by Florala

The Elba Tigers traveled to Florala last Tuesday night and were swept by the Wildcats as the varsity dropped a 10-0 area decision and the junior varsity lost 7-6.

In the 10-0 loss, the Tigers failed to manage a hit and watched a Florala pulled away late to post the win. Elba stranded six runners on base in the opening three innings as the Wildcats crept out to a 4-0 lead, and Florala took advantage of walks and Elba errors in the late innings to pull away and claim the important area win. Cameron Gray, Jay Wilson and Collin Arnold combined to pitch five and one-third innings and allowed seven earned runs on 13 hits and nine walks, while striking out eight.

In the 7-6 loss, the Tigers saw a late rally fall short in the narrow loss. Dywys Reynolds had 2 hits and scored 2 runs to lead Elba, while Skylar Mitchell added 1 hit and 2 rbi's, and Matthew McCart added 1 hit and 1 rbi. McCart pitched three innings and allowed four earned runs on four hits and four walks, while striking out four.

Tigers drop first area series

The Elba Tigers saw an early 3-0 lead evaporate in an 8-4 loss to Florala that gave the visiting Wildcats the area series win.

Cameron Gray was stranded at second after a first inning double, but Elba plated three runs in the second to grab an early 3-0 lead.

Walks to Jaden Baker and Powell Bane wrapped around a single by Easton McKelvy loaded the bases for the Tigers in the second inning explosion, while Cameron Gray delivered a two-run double to put Elba on the scoreboard, and later scored on an rbi single by Jay Wilson as the Tigers opened up a 3-0 lead.

Florala combined two walks with two hits and two errors to grab a 4-3 lead in the top of the third, but the Tigers answered right back and pulled even at 4-4 in the bottom of the inning when Brady Johnson reached on an error and circled the bases.

Florala regained the lead at 5-4 in the fourth, and added three insurance runs in the closing innings to post the 8-4 win.

Cameron Gray had 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Elba, while Easton McKelvy and Powell Bane both added 2 hits and scored 1 run, and Jay Wilson added 1 hit and 1 rbi.

Ty Sieving and Cameron Gray combined to pitch seven innings and allowed three earned runs on seven hits and three walks, while striking out seven.

LEGAL NOTICES (con't from Page 8)

Advertising for bottled water seems particularly bold considering the nature of the product. A typical claim is that a certain brand comes from a mountain spring or some other emotionally satisfying source. A mountain spring may indeed be the source, but there is no certificate that says the water from there is purer than the water from your own well or municipal supply. Bottled water sizes smaller than one gallon do not exist in the U.S. prior

Today is a good day! Be grateful.
